My Dear Sir:

I am most anxious not to trespass upon your valuable time and ask your pardon if I am in error in writing you regarding a Roman coin I have for my possession of the time of Augusta & Livia, wife of Caligula, and coined about 100-128 A.D. - gold in excellent condition.

Various dealers I have been in con-

munication with do not seem to know much about it and since it is "for sale," it has been suggested to me that perhaps you could help me regarding its value, &c.

If you are interested, I will be glad to send it to you for inspection - At any rate, will you please be good enough to let me hear from you any advice or information which would help me?

Thank you for your time and courtesy.

Sincerely yours -

Yolande Sherer

Dear Madam:

Your letter to the Metropolitan Museum of Art has been referred to us for reply. Your gold coin of Sabina may or may not be rare, all depending on the reverse, also on its condition. All I can say is it is worth anywhere from $8.00 to $50.00. If you care to send it on we can tell you better what you should get for it. Also we may wish it ourselves and if so will make you an offer.

Very truly yours,

My Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of January 15th. I am today sending you, under separate cover by registered mail, the gold coin of Sabina and shall await further word from you regarding its value.

I have also taken the liberty of enclosing a gold Mexican coin and two Canadian copper. These I do not believe amount to much - will you tell me?

Thank you very much for all of your courtesy and attention!

Very truly yours

Dear Madam:

I beg to apologize for not writing you sonner. The fact of the matter is that the person I wanted to show the coin to has been ill with the grippe; also I was holding the coin to show someone else. Unfortunately your coin is not in good enough condition to be very salable and we do not want it nor does anyone we have shown it to desire it. I am by parcel post returning it together with the other two pieces. The gold Mexican coin has no especial value. I suppose it would sell for about $2.00. The two Canadian copper coins have no value above a cent each, as they are still current coins.

Very truly yours,
